BERLIN CALLING

A Story of Anarchy, Music, the Wall and the Birth of the New Berlin

with Paul Hockenos & Gudrun Gut Monika

Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung European Union takes you on a journey through the subcultures, the occupied squats, and late-night scenes in the anarchic first few years of Berlin after the fall of the Berlin Wall.

What ?

The story is about the divided city's street artists and punk rockers, impresarios and underground agitators. The author himself lived in Berlin during these exciting times of the 'peaceful revolution' in the 1989's. The book is about the post-Wall years of artistic ferment and pirate utopias, when protest and idealism, subaltern techno clubs and sprawling squats were the order of the day.

When ?

6th June
18:30 - 23:00
