

INVITATION

Tensioned partnership: Prospects for the EU-US-Turkey relations

Date Wednesday, 9 October 2019

Time 18:00 – 20:15

Venue Hotel Leopold, Rue du Luxembourg 35, 1050 Brussels

There is no doubt that Turkey's relations with its Western allies are at a historical low. President Erdoğan's domestic and foreign policy has raised concerns among the EU and US about his commitment to Western institutions. Measures associated with the (currently lifted) emergency rule, and the confinement of journalists and activists critical of the Turkish government, put a burden on EU-Turkey relations. At the same time, Turkey deepened its relations with Russia by buying military equipment and agreeing to coordinate military operations in Syria, which is cause for serious concern in the US. Additionally, EU-US relations have come under strain in view of a US-President whose next steps in foreign policy are unpredictable.

What will the future of the EU-Turkey-US relations look like? Which role can and should the European Union play with regards to current tensions between Turkey, the US and Russia?

Programme

18:00 – 18:30	Registration
18:30 – 18:35	Welcome
	Eva van de Rakt , Head of Office, Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung European Union
18:35 – 19:30	Panel discussion
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Oya Dursun-Özkanca, Professor of Political Science, Elizabethtown College</li><li>• Sergey Lagodinsky, Member of European Parliament (The Greens/EFA), Head of the Delegation to the EU-Turkey Joint Parliamentary Committee</li><li>• Aaron Stein, Director of Program on the Middle East, Foreign Policy Research Institute</li><li>• Gönül Tol, Director of Turkey Program, Middle East Institute</li></ul>
	Moderation: Laura Batalla Adam , Secretary General, European Parliament Turkey Forum
19:30 – 20:15	Q&A
20:15	Reception and walking dinner

By invitation only. The debate will take place under Chatham House Rule.
We hope you will be able to join us and kindly ask you to register before 30 September 2019 via this link.

We look forward to welcoming you!

Kind regards,

Anna Schwarz

Head of Global Transformation Programme

Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung European Union
Rue du Luxembourg, 47-51
1050 Brussels