Søren Jessen-Petersen - Head of the Washington Office, Independent Diplomat

Asatu Bah Kenneth - Deputy Inspector General, Liberian National Police

Katherine Magraw - Director, Peace and Security Funders Group

Marta Lucia Ramirez - Senator, National Congress of Colombia, Bogotá; former Minister of Defence

Plus

Mirsad Jacevic (Resource Specialist) - Deputy Director, The Initiative for Inclusive Security

Carla Koppell (Resource Specialist) - Director, The Initiative for Inclusive Security, Hunt Alternatives Fund

The program will emphasize ways to close gaps in implementation and consider -

- the effectiveness of action plans at national and intergovernmental levels
- the need for clear, specific and measureable commitments
- the creation of accountability measures
- successful means to raise awareness and understanding
- the need for benchmarks and resource allocation
- effective advocacy and coalition efforts

The Salzburg Global Organisation engages in targeted outreach and seeks to engage a significant number of participants from the policy arena and those in a position to help advance Peace-Making and Peace-Building: Securing the Contributions of Women and Civil Society in and through their own institutions.

Please note it is hoped organizations will be able to pay full or partial costs (full cost is 3,300 Euro for the program, excluding travel).

In cases of financial need, Salzburg Global Seminar will do its best to provide support to enable people to attend.

The Salzburg Seminar

The Salzburg Seminar is an institution focused on global change - a place where innovative ideas lead to practical solutions. As an independent, neutral forum, the Salzburg Seminar engages current and future leaders in candid discussion to inspire new thinking and to pioneer strategies for change. Founded in 1947 by three Harvard students, the Salzburg Seminar has brought more than 25,000 Fellows from 150 countries to its programs conducted both at Schloss Leopoldskron in Salzburg and at partnering venues around the world. Advancements in technology are enabling the Seminar to extend the impacts of all its programs by facilitating the ongoing exchange of professional experience and ideas among its global community of alumni.
