

Programme

- 12.30 Luncheon Snack
- 13.30 Welcome
- 13.35 Introductory Presentation
How escape from taxation and regulation by moving 'offshore' ruined the world's economy (Jack Blum, lawyer and US government consultant on issues of offshore tax evasion and proceeds of crime)
- 14.00 – 16.00 Panel I: The Role of Tax Havens in the Financial Crisis
(Moderator: Monika Heinold, MdL)
- How do financial market actors use regulatory havens? What are the consequences for financial stability? (Prof. Dr. Jan Pieter Krahnen, University of Frankfurt)
- The financial stability demands of the G-20 with regard to tax havens and the policy of the German government (Michael Findeisen, German Ministry of Finance)
- Green Policy proposals on financial stability (Dr. Gerhard Schick, Member of the Bundestag, Alliance '90/The Greens)
- 16.00 – 16.30 Pause
- 16.30 – 18.30 Panel II: Tax Havens, Tax Evasion and Avoidance
(Moderator: Dr. Thomas Rixen, Social Science Research Center, WZB)
- SPD and German Government Coalition policy on harmful tax practices (Lothar Binding, Member of the Bundestag, Social Democratic Party, SPD)
- Drying up the tax oases: European-level policy proposals (Dr. Gerhard Schick, Member of the Bundestag, Alliance '90/The Greens)
- Why the efforts to end tax haven abuse have failed and what must be done to change the system—One lawyer's experience (Jack Blum, lawyer and US government consultant on issues of offshore tax evasion and proceeds of crime)
- What to do against tax havens? The position of German industry (Berthold Welling, Federation of German Industries, BDI)
- 18.30 – 19.30 Evening Snack
- 19.30 – 21.30 Evening Debate
John Christensen, (Tax Justice Network)
Reinhard Bütikofer (Alliance '90/The Greens)
Heike Göbel (Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung)
Moderator: Barbara Unmüßig (Director of the Heinrich Böll Foundation)

The format of both panels will consist in 10-minute presentations.

Discussion among the panelists will also be opened to the audience. (Or target group is primarily experts, but the broader public is also included.)